

Adding The Subtractions: Poems Of Love And Grief

Love and grief are two powerful emotions that can profoundly impact our lives. They often work in tandem, shaping our experiences, and leaving an indelible mark on our souls. The beauty of poetry lies in its ability to evoke and convey these complex emotions in a way that can resonate with readers on a deep level. One such collection of poems that explores the themes of love and grief is "Adding The Subtractions."

The title itself, "Adding The Subtractions," is captivating and indicative of the emotional journey that awaits within the pages of this mesmerizing collection. Through the masterful use of words, the author takes readers on a poignant expedition through the highs and lows of love and the gripping pain of loss.

The poems in this collection beautifully capture the joy, passion, and vulnerability that come with love. They speak of the exhilaration of new beginnings and the intoxicating feeling of being swept away by someone's presence. The verses paint vivid pictures of stolen glances, stolen kisses, and stolen moments of pure bliss.

As readers delve deeper into the collection, they are confronted with the contrasting emotions of grief. The author skillfully explores the themes of heartbreak, longing, and the agonizing emptiness that accompanies the departure of a loved one. Each poem is a raw and unfiltered expression of the pain and anguish that can often overwhelm those left behind.

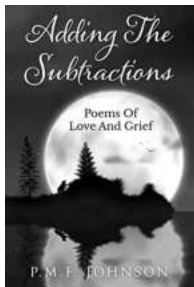

The imagery and symbolism employed in these poems are both beautiful and haunting. Metaphors become the author's brush, painting emotions onto the canvas of the reader's mind. Each line is carefully crafted to evoke a visceral response, whether it's a lump in the throat, tears welling in the eyes, or a profound sense of catharsis.

The use of language is truly exceptional in "Adding The Subtractions." The author's mastery over words allows for a vivid exploration of love and grief. The carefully chosen descriptors and meaningful phrases effortlessly transport readers to the core of these complex emotions.

One of the remarkable aspects of this collection is its ability to make the reader feel seen and understood. No matter where one may be on their own journey of love or grief, these poems offer solace and companionship. They remind us that we are not alone in our experiences and that our emotions are valid.

"Adding The Subtractions" is an exquisite collection that will tug at the heartstrings of anyone who has ever loved deeply or experienced loss. It resonates with the human condition, capturing the universal aspects of our emotional landscape. The poems act as a bridge, connecting readers to their own feelings and enabling them to navigate the complexities of their own hearts.

, "Adding The Subtractions" is a poetic exploration of love and grief that will leave a lasting impact on readers. The carefully curated collection of poems dives into the intricacies of these intense emotions, offering solace, understanding, and a deeper appreciation for the human experience. Through the power of words, the author invites us to reflect on our own stories, reminding us that love and grief are universal threads that bind us all.

As my father underwent his journey of dying, I was moved to write poems that chronicled his experiences and those of our family. I was often shocked and sorrowed by the process, but there was also much beauty, tenderness, and occasionally even humor amid the grief.

Many of these poems were previously published, in such publications as The Evansville Review, The Main Street Rag, Blue Unicorn, Frogpond, Modern Haiku, and others.
