Exploring the Stories

One of the standout stories in the collection is "The Fisherman's Lament." Set against the backdrop of a small coastal village, Loher paints a mesmerizing picture of a fisherman's existential crisis. Through her rich descriptions and poetic prose, readers are transported into the mind of the protagonist, feeling the weight of his burdens and the yearning for something more.

"Storm Chasers" is another gripping tale that showcases Loher's ability to create intense atmospheres. This story follows a group of thrill-seeking individuals who find themselves caught in the midst of a treacherous storm. The narrative intensity builds with each passing page, leaving readers on the edge of their seats until the very end.

In "Frozen Whispers," Loher takes readers on a mysterious journey through an icy wilderness. The story follows a group of explorers on their quest to uncover the secrets hidden within a frozen tundra. Loher's evocative descriptions of the frozen landscape and the characters' internal struggles make this story a profound exploration of human resilience and the pursuit of truth.

The characters in Pawel Huelle's mesmerising stories find themselves, willingly or not, at the heart of epic narratives; legends and histories that stretch far beyond the limits of their own lives. Against the backdrop of the Baltic coast, mythology and meteorology mix with the inexorable tide of political change: Kashubian folklore, Chinese mysticism and mediaeval scholarship butt up against the war in Chechnya, 9-11, and the struggle for Polish independence.

Central to Huelle's imagery is the vision of the refugee – be it the Chechen woman carrying her newborn child across the Polish border (her face emblazoned on every TV screen), the survivor of the Gulag re-appearing on his friends' doorstep, years after being presumed dead, or the stranger who befriends the sole resident of a ghostly Mennonite village in the final days of the Second World War. Each refugee carries a clue, it seems, or is in possession or pursuit of some mysterious text or book, knowing that only it – like the Chinese 'Book of Changes' – can decode their story.

What we do with this text, this clue, Huelle seems to say, is up to us.
