Families come in all shapes and sizes, including foster children and rescue dogs.

MELANIE GENTRY came to Peakview, Colorado to find a father she never knew. Now she's established a home for herself and her teenage daughter. HANK DALTON left his past behind and settled into his life as the head wrangler at Peaktop Guest Ranch. He's a loner and he likes it that way. That is until he runs into Melanie, who makes him want to reconsider that decision. There's just something about her.

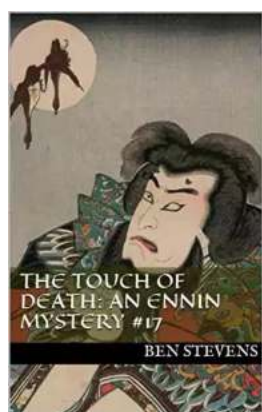

When Melanie adds a foster child and a rescue dog to her family, Hank decides he's not what Melanie needs. Both must let go of their past mistakes before these two can find a way to blend their lives and create a real family.

Come home to Peakview, where everyone has a chance at love.
