From USA Today Bestselling Author Brynne Asher, a forced proximity romantic suspense about a woman on the run and a tortured soul.

The princess and a dead man.

They say money makes the world go round.

They'd be wrong.

Sure, power can be bought, but you can gain a hell of a lot more with knowledge. With knowledge comes fear.

I've seen it.

I've caused it.

I've even been the brunt of it.

But when a stowaway princess barrels into my life like a runaway train, I throw patience out the window—the same one I jump out of, taking her with me.

Now I've got more problems than any contract killer deserves.

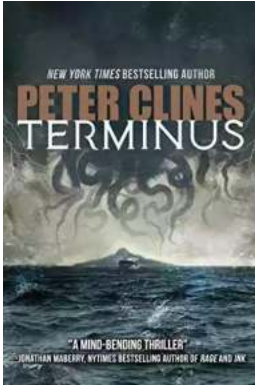

That includes Aliyah Zahir—an internationally coveted socialite, a true royal, and a social media sensation. Returning to the lion's den, she ends up in harm's way—all for a mirage.

She's chasing a ghost.

But instead, she finds a dead man.

I'm done being patient. It's my turn to administer fear for a change, and no one is better equipped to fix Liyah's problems than me.

And I'm never giving her back.
