You know what's annoying? Having your first real date interrupted by a werewolf and a hellhound.

I've lived a pretty boring, secluded life, hiding amongst humans on the outskirts of a small town. But when the demons I've heard stories about show up at my front door, everything changes. Suddenly, I have to trade in my quiet life for a whole new world filled with violence, secrets, and magic.

As if enrolling in The Guild wasn't difficult enough, I'm forced to work with a team of mysterious protectors who think I'm as repulsive as the demons they're training me to kill. They don't seem to want me around, but I can't deny that something beyond my control is drawing us together—even when I try to escape them, I just get pulled closer into their orbit.

Icing on the cake? For some reason, the demons I'm supposed to be hunting down are coming after me instead. Nothing about this new life is at all like how I thought it would be. If I can't figure out who to trust and fast, I'm screwed.
