Luna, the moon of the night sky, granted the pack members the ability to blend seamlessly into the darkness, making them virtually invisible to unsuspecting enemies. Sol, the sun deity, blessed them with incredible strength and agility that surpassed any other creature in the woods. Finally, Selene, the moon of magic, gifted the pack with the power to manipulate elements and cast enchantments.

Unique Abilities

Combined, these powers formed a formidable force. The pack found harmony in their unusual blend of abilities, allowing them to protect the woods from dark magic and other nefarious creatures that threatened its balance.

Wolf-reptilian hybrids, half-wolf and half-dragon, were the core members of the Rejected Hybrid Triple Moon Pack. Their scales, impenetrable to most attacks, and their sharp fangs and claws, made them fearsome adversaries.

Their mesmerizing eyes could reveal glimpses of the Ancient Knowledge, granting them insight into the world's hidden secrets. It is said that those who stared into the eyes of a pack member could feel their minds expand, granting them wisdom beyond their years.

The Dark Betrayal

Despite their strength and unity, jealousy and deceit found their way into the pack. A member, consumed by greed and blinded by desire for ultimate power, sought to harness the energies of the triple moons for their personal gain.

This rogue member, once considered an ally, betrayed the pack and tampered with the delicate balance orchestrated by the moons. The hybrid creatures lost control over their powers and chaos ensued.

Rise of the Fallen

As the pack fell into disarray, the moons knew they had to intervene to restore balance to the woodland realm. They called upon a brave, young wolf who possessed the qualities needed to redeem the fallen pack.

The young wolf embarked on a treacherous journey to seek the lost fragments of the pack. With each fragment found, the pack members regained control over their powers and rekindled their bond of unity.

The Final Battle

Together, the redeemed Hybrid Triple Moon Pack confronted the rogue member who sought to tear them apart. It was a fierce battle, where the outcome of the woodland realm hung in the balance.

Channeling the strength of the three moons, Luna, Sol, and Selene, the pack unleashed their might upon their treacherous foe, banishing them from the realm forever. The woodland realm rejoiced at the defeat of the dark presence, as peace was restored once more.

The Legacy Lives On

Though the Rejected Hybrid Triple Moon Pack faced betrayal and turmoil, their legacy lives on within the enchanted woods. Brave wolves still speak of their heroic journey and the power of unity, reminding all who listen of the importance of staying true to one's pack and embracing their unique abilities.

So, the next time you wander through the deep, mystical woods, keep your eyes open for signs of the Rejected Hybrid Triple Moon Pack. They may be hidden from view, but their powerful presence lingers, ready to protect the realm from any who dare threaten its peace.

My fated mate rejected me. Now supernaturals are being murdered, and I've been kidnapped to help find the killer.

I'm Zenna, a hybrid witch-fae who was cast out from my home. The Triple Moon wolf pack have mated with my coven for generations. But the alpha, my fated mate, didn't want anything to do with me and my freakish psychic abilities.

Five years after I was rejected, a witch is murdered in my neighbourhood. Against my roommate's better judgment, I need to find out why.

I'm sick of using my visions to entertain patrons at the bar. This time, there's a real-life freaking serial killer out there, and they're hunting witches. I take that personally.

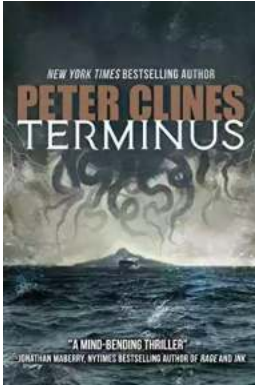

When my fated mate, Mordecai, shows up in town, full of arrogant swagger, demanding that I use my abilities to solve a murder in his own pack, I refuse.

So he shoves me in his car. End of conversation.

His father has been murdered, and I'm going to help, whether I like it or not, using the very powers he rejected me for.

Yeah, I should have maced him on sight.

Rejected Hybrid is the first book in this rejected fated mates series. The first book has mild steam and heats up as the series continues. It is not a standalone and the first book ends on a cliffhanger. This is a M/F romance. Series has a guaranteed HEA.
