Toxic is a short story based on the true story of The Toxic Woman, a harrowing tale about a woman who came to the hospital for help but left the staff gasping for breath. No one knows exactly what happened, why her blood caused doctors and nurses to become violently ill, but theories are like excuses - everybody has at least one. Based on research gathered from online articles and an episode from Daisy Egan's podcast, Strange and Unexplained, Sara Bushway has pieced together what she believes happened to The Toxic Woman and shares it a few pages of fiction - now available in ebook format through multiple online book retailers.
